How they Nabbed Him.

When Walter Barth was captured in California he was near the house of a man where his horse was stabled.

The officers found the horse first and then laid for the man at Dened's ranch four miles North of Volcano, California.

He came up the path and about fifty yards from the stables stopped to talk with his captors.

Raycraft covered him with a Winchester and Patterson stepped up to him with the handcuffs. As he turned he saw the Winchester and Raycraft said:

"Throw up your hands"

He threw up his left hand and reached for his gun with his right when Patterson putting a size-shooter in his face told him if he pulled he would blow his head off.

He lifted his hand and it was empty. He was immediately handcuffed.

An Excellent Portrait.

There is on exhibition at the Pavilion a very artistic portrait of Senator Stewart in crayon.

It is the work of Mrs. Captain P. W. Donovan of San Francisco.

Mrs. Donovan has several other portraits in crayon on exhibition and all show the very finest qualities of work in that most difficult branch of art, crayon portraits.

An Old Story.

The Gazette has just learned about the inside facts relative to the murder in Eastern Nevada some years ago which resulted in the hanging of the Pottses. Mrs. Potts was married unknown to her husband, to the man she killed. All this was made public a few months after the hanging took place.

"Speech is Silver."

The silver-haired Senator, who has served Nevada so well, will speak at the Carson Opera House next Monday evening, Oct. 3rd. No one should miss hearing Senator Stewart on this occasion.

O. H. Gray is carrying things with a high hand in this State. His work belongs to the same class of operations perpetrated in the last Legislature, when the vote of the people on the Constitutional Convention was thrown out because the bosses didn't want it that way. The people stand being disfranchised once but we very much mistake the temper of the voters of Nevada if they tamely submit to a second dose of it.

The Pacific Coast official organ of the People's Party is for sale at Cagwin & Noteware's, who are agents for it. Subscription price $1.50 per year, or seventy-five cents for six months.

THE PARTY ORGANIZED.

The Silver Men of Ormsby Ready for Business.

Last evening the silver men of Ormsby, embracing Republicans and Democrats, met at the Court House to organize the Silver Party. There were nine members of the Democratic Central Committee present, and nine silver men of the Conference Committee present. On motion of Mr. Folsom the two Committees were merged into a committee of 18, and these were constituted the Central Committee of the Silver Party of Ormsby County. Mr. Logan, the Chairman of the Committee, stated that he was obliged to be in Empire most of the time, and he asked that a Chairman be appointed who was a resident of Carson, so Dr. Guinan was elected. He appointed the following as the Executive Committee of the Silver Party: F. G. Folsom, A. Robert, M. D. Noteware and P. H. Petersen.

The following are the members of the Committee of Eighteen:

J. Guinan, H. R. Logan, F. G. Folsom, W. H. Chedie, Hyman Oleovich, A. Robert, A. McGowan, P. H. Petersen, M. D. Noteware, M. Cohn, J. S. Heidenreich, Joe Walter, S. H. Dav, J. M. Raycraft, M. C. Gardner, E. James, William Kinney, John Wagner.

ALL SORTS.

Ben Hass the Virginia adonis was in town yesterday.

The meals spread by Gilbert Briggs at the track are first class in every way. The waiters are attentive and polite to the hungry throng.

Putting King on the ticket instead of Parkinson is a bitter pill to Eddie, but he had to swallow it. He is entitled to the place under all rules of politics but the Central Committee knew perfectly well that they could not elect him and forced the humble pie down his throat.

Percy King, a bright young tender foot of this county, has been placed on the Assembly ticket in place of Dr. Winnie who declined to endorse Bartine for the Senate. Several people are already asking how long Mr. King has been assisting in the development of Ormsby County.

Muldoon, Sullivan's old trainer offers to train Sullivan and back him against any man in the world with his own money. He says Sullivan was sacrificed by pretended friends, who allowed him to eat and drink as he pleased. They put him into the ring in poor condition and then bet every dollar they had on Corbett.

The California Illustrated Magazine, a Pacific Coast monthly is becoming the literature of the hour inasmuch as its editors have succeeded in procuring the very best class of reading matter for subscribers. In a few days it will be represented in Carson by an agent direct from the publishing house in San Francisco, and when you realize that the enterprise is backed by several California millionaires it is evident that it is destined to progress and materially assist the Pacific Coast.

THE THIRD DAY.

A Large Delegation from the Outside Towns.

The excellent weather still continues, and yesterday brought out a large attendance, the grand stand being crowded, and the crowd around the pool box a perfect jam.

The bicycle races were called at 11 o'clock, and in the mile race Harry Brown, Joe Muller and Jim Benton entered. Brown captured the race in 3.08, with Joe Muller second.

In the half-mile bicycle race Will Doan Joe Muller and Will Davis were the competitors. Davis took the race in 1.40, Muller second.

Benton Brown and Davis pedaled the quarter dash and came under the wire in the order named, in 46. The slow time in the last two races was caused by a breeze blowing up the quarter stretch.

THE RACES.

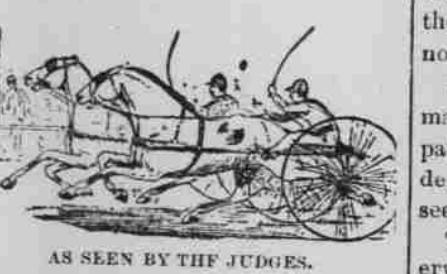

In the afternoon the chariot race brought the ladies out in great force. Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Emory of Sacramento were the drivers. Mrs. Collier winning the dash of a mile, and cheers from the grand stand. The drivers were unable to stop their horses at the finish and the winning team ran another mile although the other was brought down to a trot before the last quarter was reached. Mrs. Collier stayed with her horses in good shape, and showed great pluck. When she brought them to a standstill at the exit gate, she sank in the chariot completely exhausted. The affair created a little excitement but the lady was herself in a few moments.

Ida Glen, Martinet, Alliance, R. H. and Vanity entered the 11-16 dash, which was taken by Martinet in 1.11, Vanity second. It was a well contested race and made betting very lively.

In the 3/8 and repeat the starters were Dewdrop, Nelson, Charger and Spot. Nelson took the first heat, though Dewdrop, the favorite, got away with the next two heats and race. Best time 33.4.

Frenchy, Wapple, Sample and Pepper entered the pace, which was won by Frenchy in three straight heats. Best time 2:37.

Anteo, Irvine and Esmeralda started in the trotting race. Anteo won the first heat in 2:42, with Esmeralda second. The second heat went to Esmeralda in 2:40; also the third, in 2:41.

AS SEEN BY THE JUDGES.

At this juncture a complaint was made to the judges that Esmeralda's driver was going to throw the race, and a change was demanded. A counter kick was put in however, and by way of explanation it was said that the others wanted a jobber put in the place of Esmeralda's driver. The judges declined to make any change, as they considered the driving all right. Anteo was given the next heat in 2:46, and the race was postponed until today, on account of the late hour.

Anti-Weaverites, in Georgia, unable to reply to Weaver's arguments throw rotten eggs at his wife while sitting on the stage. These acts of low bred rowdism are approvingly copied by the Tribune of this city and endorsed.

ADDRESSED TO THE NATION.

General Weaver Explains the Trouble in Georgia.

General James B. Weaver, the People's Party candidate for President of the United States, issued the following address to the nation:

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 23d.
To Mr. R. D. Irvin, Chairman of State Committee People's Party, Atlanta. Dear Sir:—At the urgent request of your Committee I entered this State on the 20th instant for the purpose of addressing the people of Georgia upon the political situation and the issues involved in the present national campaign.

The places named for said meeting were Waycross, Albany, Columbus, Macon, Atlanta, Madison, Augusta and Elberton. I find the spirit of organized rowdism at some of the points visited within the State so great as to render it inadvisable for me to attempt to fill the engagements at the points not already mentioned.

PERSONAL VIOLENCE.
Personal indignity was threatened at Waycross, but was suppressed by the attendance of a large number of our friends, and the careful management of Mr. Reed, our local chairman.

At Albany we met a howling mob which refused to accord us a respectful hearing. Our meeting at Columbus was a grand success, thanks to the superior management of Mr. C. J. Thornton. About 3,000 people attended this meeting and gave us respectful and enthusiastic attention.

MRS. WEAVER STRUCK.
At Macon the conduct of the mob which greeted our advent into the city was simply disgraceful beyond description.

Rotten eggs were thrown prior to the introduction of the speaker, one of which struck Mrs. Weaver on the head.

Eggs were repeatedly thrown during the continuance of the meeting, the crowds continuing to howl until past midnight.

MOB AT ATLANTA.
At Atlanta a similar crowd of rowdies gathered at the point of meeting, bent on tumult and disorder.

Learning of this, Mrs. Lease and myself refused to appear, either in forenoon or in the evening. I am convinced that similar treatment awaits us at the points not visited.

I decline to meet such appointments.

The members of our party although apparently largely in the majority in the State, are unable to secure for us a peaceful and respectful hearing.

ROWDIES INCITED BY POLITICIANS.
I wish to call special attention to the fact that the disorder is confined almost exclusively to young rowdies who infest the towns and who are incited to violence by persons who keep in the background. The people are uniformly respectful. It is especially worthy of note that the disrespect does not proceed from these people. The police force at these disorderly points named made no efforts at resistance.

I think it is but fair to say that many people, who are not in sympathy with the People's party, openly denounce these outrages, but they seem powerless to assert themselves.

The mayor of Waycross made every effort to protect our meeting at that point.

JAS. B. WEAVER.

The Theater.

There was a large audience last evening to see "The Country Girl." The Company, which is a very strong one, is overshadowed by the child actress, and people who cannot afford to go every night have held off to see The Prince and the Pauper this evening, when Georgie Cooper plays both characters and does her astonishing lightning changes. It is her greatest work. The box sheet started to fill up several days ago, and a big house will witness this performance.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle.

Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.

Building Lot, 50x200, on North Carson Street, frontage on three streets, $100.

I have cash purchasers for improved or unimproved Carson street property.
